

Step 1:

Read through the script to get a general idea of the play and the characters.

Step 2:

Brainstorm costume ideas with hand sketches.

Step 3:

Create a “rough draft” for the designers and actors to evaluate and tweak.

Step 4:

Sew or create a second “draft” of the costume with changes from the designer included.

Step 5:

Actor comes in for fitting and adjustment.

Step 6:

Once all fittings and adjustments are completed, you have the final product.